

Name Saud ur Rehman

Reg No. Fa22-Bse-048

Submitted to Sir Mukhtiar Zamin.

PROCESS ANALYSIS:-

1. Types of process: This is a request to approval process because students submit admission applications which are reviewed and approved by university.

2. Actors Involved:- The main actors involved are:-

- students
- Admission office staff.
- Department head
- Finance department
- University management.

3- Customers of The Process:-

The customers of this process are ~~are~~ students applying for admission to the university.

4- Main tasks:- The major tasks in this process include

- student submit admission's form.
- Documents are verified.
- Admission / test or Interviews are conducted.
- Merit list are Prepared.
- ~~Students~~ students receive admission offer.

- Fee is submitted.
- Enrolment is complete.

5. value Delivered by The Process:-

The Process helps students gain admission, to academic programmes and begin their education.

6. Possible outcomes of The Process:- Include:-

- Students gets admission.
- Application is rejected.
- Admission is delayed due to missing documents.
- Students fails to submit fee on time.

7. Performance Measures:- can be measured through:-

- Application Processing time.
- Accuracy of document verification
- Student satisfaction.
- Time required to publish merit lists.
- Number of successful enrollments.

8. Potential Problems in The Process:- are:-

- Missing or Incorrect documents.
- Delays in Verification.
- System/Server issues during online application.
- long waiting times.
- Communication gaps with students.

q. Possible Improvements:- can be improved by:-

- Introducing fully online admission system.
- Automated document verification
- Sending Emails/SMS notifications to students
- Faster Fee verification system.
- Better coordination between departments.